Granddaughter of Rolland and Jan Murray
- Transferred back into Woodlawn-September 28th-Harry & Evelyn Hillyard
- Had our first meeting of the members of our team on October 9th.
- Working with the Celebrate Stewardship Campaign Team
- Ongoing work on the Wedding Policy which will be ready for approval at the Full Council meeting on November 19th.
- Funeral Policies and Procedures being worked on. Kay Inkpen has agreed to be the Funeral Coordinator.
- During Baptism Seminars a box of offering envelopes will be given to parents/guardians if they are not already contributing members.
- On Rally Sunday, Ice Cream and toppings were provided so that the young people or those that are young at heart could make "Sundays".*
- Pastoral Care meet on September 23rd and visits continued to our members who are sick or shut-in. Thanks to Carol White and Isobel Jones who have joined the pastoral care team. We have been running an announcement in the bulletin to try and recruit a few more people.
- Maureen Woods has been having trouble-finding greeters for the Christmas services.
- Coffee hour has been continuing under Shirley Zwicker with not many problems in filling the Sundays. We are hoping that during the Celebrate Stewardship Campaign that there will be names that come forward that are interested in greeting and doing coffee hour.

Action requested by Council:

Kim Curlett will be collecting amendments to the marriage policy on Stewardship and Community Life's behalf. Therefore we are requesting that any members of the Council who have amendments to be addressed, send the info to Kim via e-mail no later than Friday, November 7th. A revised Marriage Policy can be circulated to Full Council on or before November 12th for questions, concern and discussion prior to November 16th Full Council Meeting. Our intention is to present this Revised Policy for acceptance at November meeting. E-mail amendments to Kim @ kcurlett@eastlink.ca
